Direct to the Planter

In presenting our Annual Price List this season, we are obliged to advance prices somewhat, owing to high cost of production. However, you will note our prices are very reasonable at this time for high-class stock, as we handle no other. We wish to thank you for past favors and liberal patronage, and assure you we shall try and give value received for every dollar’s worth of goods you are kind enough to purchase from us in the future, as we believe we have in the past. We urgently request correspondence and trial orders from new customers, feeling sure you will be more than pleased with our way. Buy direct; get acquainted with the man who grows the trees; who stands back of every order he sells you. We insist that, if you have any reason for complaint, upon receipt of goods, you will kindly notify us at once. We are only too willing to adjust any fault on our part.

Selling through agents is expensive; hence, since inaugurating our system of selling direct to the planter, we are enabled to sell at a lower price than you would have to pay in buying through agents. It is the sensible way of doing business, besides the satisfaction the personal dealings always bring.

We stand back of every order that goes direct from our nursery to our customer.
Our trees are carefully selected and inspected. Your order is promptly filled; you get your trees all nicely packed, and fresh right at your home—not left at some delivery point to lie around and spoil, as is often done through the agent system. It should be a pleasure to know you can buy these direct from a reliable nursery; know what you get; get what you order; get it at once, nicely packed and in first class condition, right at your door, at a big saving over the old way. Why not mail us your order. Let us prove to you our way is right. Our trees are all packed in paper-lined boxes, in damp shingle toe, except small packages, which are neatly wrapped in burlap.

We must state that our mail-order system has been a wonderful success. It means better trees to you at greatly reduced prices. Once you order, we feel sure you are our customer ever after.

At prices herein quoted, all trees or plants are carefully labeled, securely packed and placed on cars at Lafayette, Ore., free of charge.

ERRORS OR SHORTAGE

In case of errors or shortage, customers are requested to notify us within six (6) days from receipt of goods, otherwise we will not be held responsible for any claims made.
